

Sarah Newbury has performed at numerous cabaret venues including the Canal Café, the Basement at Leicester Square Theatre, Jermyn Street Theatre, the Battersea Barge and the Covent Garden Theatre Museum. Originally trained at Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts, after completing a Theatre course at Leeds University, Sarah is now looking to establish herself as a cabaret and jazz singer on the London circuit.

Recent revue shows include 'Songs for a New World', 'Side by Side by Sondheim' and 'But The World Goes Round'. In 2008 she performed her first one-woman show, 'Around The World In Eighty Minutes', and in 2009 she returned with 'Sarah Newbury: Songs For Now'.

